In preparation for the afternoon appointments, participants will take part in a number of special breakout sessions to understand the wide range of businesses in the online travel industry. Our research shows that understanding buyer's needs is a crucial element to securing the appropriate contract solutions. The breakout sessions will feature our online buyers presenting and discussing their different business models, markets, segment's and contracting requirements. These sessions will be delivered by buyers from various backgrounds including market specific, pan European, product and dynamic operators. Attendance at these sessions is mandatory.
