ANCIENT IRELAND

Get up close to the stones and stories of Ireland's prehistoric past. Hear tales of druids and mythical warriors told by locals in a magical and inspiring way.

EARLY CHRISTIAN IRELAND

Step into Ireland's Golden Age of Saints and Scholars and visit the university and monastery sites where Ireland's pioneering saints and monks wrote some of the world's greatest illuminated manuscripts, before spreading their learning and spirituality throughout a Europe locked in the Dark Ages.

MEDIEVAL IRELAND

Explore the pathways and lush river valleys of Medieval Ireland to hear tales of invasions and rebellion, and let your imagination take flight amongst the walls of Ireland's greatest castles and fortresses, where foreign knights wrested the land from the old chieftains.

ANGLO IRELAND

Discover the stories of a time of contrasts which shaped the lives of the now settled conquerors of Ireland and those they ruled over. This is the time of Empire, Rebellion, Innovation and Industry.

10 Quick Facts from Ireland's Ancient East

1. Waterford City is Ireland's oldest centre of continuous urban settlement in Ireland and is consequently Ireland's oldest City. Founded by the Vikings between 856 and 914, the city is over 1,000 years old.
2. Muiretach's Cross, Monasterboice. Co. Louth is Ireland's most beautiful High Cross and West Cross, and is the tallest remaining Celtic high cross in Ireland.
3. Newgrange in Co. Meath is the best known Irish passage tomb and dates to c.3, 200BC. It is the oldest known deliberately orientated structure in the world.
4. Loughcrew, Co. Meath is possibly the oldest cemetery in the world and tells of Ireland's neolithic cultures. One legend has it that the so-called burial mounds were created by a witch flying overhead and dropping pebbles on the landscape.
5. The Timahoe round tower in Co. Laois is one of Ireland's most beautiful. It was built in the 1100s. Carvings of human heads, with flowing beards and moustaches, decorate the main entrance, about five metres from the ground.
6. Trim Castle, Co. Meath is Ireland's Largest Anglo-Norman Castle. It is also the place where the film Braveheart was shot.
7. Ireland's earliest known lighthouse is at Hook Head, Co. Wexford. It was first built in the thirteenth century, where it was maintained by local monks.
8. Ballitore, Co. Kildare is the only planned and permanent Quaker Settlement in Ireland.
9. Ireland's oldest known bridge crossed the River Shannon near Clonmacnoise, Co. Offaly. Underwater archaeology in the 1990's revealed the remains of a great wooden bridge at least 120m in length dating from 804AD.
10. Lockes Distillery in Kilbeggan, Co. Westmeath was licensed in 1757 and produced whiskey for over 200 years. Now open as a museum, it is the only sample left in Ireland of a typical small pot distillery.
